

Born in Paris in a French Italian-Hungarian family, Lucas Lipari-Mayer was appointed soloist of the Ensemble intercontemporain in June 2018. In September 2018, he was a semi-finalist in the ARD competition in Munich; in October 2018, he won the 1st prize and the audience prize at the Città di Porcia International Trumpet Competition (Italy) and in November 2019 the 1st prize at the Théo Charlier International Competition (Belgium) as well as at the Werner Preis in Austria in 2022 and at Ellsworth Smith in the USA where he won a 2nd Prize. Since then, he has regularly appeared as a soloist with the greatest orchestras such as SemperOper Dresden, Royal Stockholm Philharmonic, Münchner KammerOrchester, Rai Orchestra, Orchestra of St. Luke's, Orchestra di Padova, Jeju Philharmonic with great conductors such as Vladimir Jurowski, Ilan Volkov, Matthias Pintscher, Denis Russell Davies performing classical and contemporary programs.

At the same time, he plays with various groups and orchestras in France and internationally: Opéra de Paris, Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio France, Orchestre National de France, Dresden Semperoper, Royal Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra, Orchestre de Paris, Ensemble Musikfabrik, Malmö Symphony Orchestra, Orchestre de Chambre de Paris, Teatro La Fenice, Malmö All Star Brass Ensemble, Kaleidoscope Chamber Orchestra, Carillon Quartet and the experimental company based in Los Angeles: The Industry. He also regularly performs as a trumpet-vocals or trumpet-organ duo at various cultural events (Bach Festival, events in Saint-Eustache with Thomas Ospital). In 2024, he created the Duo MiLLiP with accordionist Anthony Millet.

At the same time, Lucas is a member of the Bacchus brass quintet and the ensemble 'Les Trompettes de Versailles' and is regularly asked to record film music. He has recorded a concerto dedicated to him by Elliot Goldenthal, an Oscar-winning composer, which will be released soon.

Since 2023, Lucas has also been a professor at the Conservatoire du 7ème arrondissement in Paris and at the CRI in Palaiseau.

Lucas is a Yamaha Artist.